

A CHORUS LINE

January 9, 10, 15, 16 & 17, 2010

A Chorus Line

Book by James Kirkwood & Nicholas Dante
 Music by Marvin Hamlisch
 Lyrics by Edward Kleban

At a cast call for an upcoming Broadway musical, chorus hopefuls showcase their talent and reluctantly reveal their pasts at the audition. They share their ambitions, hopes, dreams and despairs as they try to land a job in the show. A brilliant fusion of dance, song and drama with memorable musical numbers including I Hope I Get It, What I Did for Love, and One (Singular Sensation).

Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Drama and the Tony Award for Best Musical.

Barefoot in the Park

By Neil Simon

After a 6-day honeymoon, conventional lawyer Paul Bratter and his free spirited wife Corie move into the new, high-rent apartment that she has chosen for them in New York City. They discover that the 6th floor walkup has no furniture, a skylight with a hole in it and an upstairs neighbor who needs to use their fire escape in order to get to his apartment. Following a visit from his disapproving new mother-in-law, matters go from bad to worse. When Paul flatly refuses to join Corie in a barefoot walk through the snow in the park, the honeymoon seems to be over.

"A bubbling, rib-tickling comedy." - The New York Times
