Witness for the Prosecution

By Agatha Christie
Directed by Debbie Starker

A young married man spends many evenings with a rich old woman. When she is found murdered, the naive young man is the chief suspect. The testimony of his wife is expected to result in an acquittal, but her evidence all but hangs him. Has the wife perjured herself? Will the husband get away with murder? A suspenseful courtroom thriller with an uncanny triple flip ending.

"Packs plenty of surprise in its cargo of suspense."-Daily Mirror
Winner of the New York Critics Circle Award

Man of La Mancha

Written by Dale Wasserman, Music by Mitch Leigh, Lyrics by Joe Darion
Directed by Rick Grossman
Musical Direction by Bill Holland

Playwright and poet Miguel de Cervantes has been thrown into a dungeon in Seville to await trial by the Inquisition. When his fellow prisoners confiscate his uncompleted manuscript of a novel called "Don Quixote", Cervantes seeks to save it by proposing to entertain the inmates. He and his faithful manservant transform themselves into Don Quixote and Sancho Panza, acting out the poignant story of a dying old man whose impossible dream takes over his mind. The wonderful score includes Dulcinea, Little Bird and the incomparable The Impossible Dream.

Winner of 5 Tony Awards and the New York Drama Critics Circle Award for Best Musical

*Please note that due to scheduling constraints there will be only one Friday performance.

The Sunshine Boys

By Neil Simon
Directed by Scott Saperstein

Al Lewis and Willy Clark were once a popular vaudeville comedy team known as "The Sunshine Boys." After forty-three years as a team, they parted company on not too friendly terms and haven't spoken in over 20 years. Now a major network wants to feature a reunion of the classic duo on a variety show about the history of comedy. Can the producer convince the crotchety old comedians to put aside their mutual dislike before the big show?

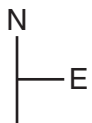

"It's ham on wry... Simon's sure footed craftsmanship and his one-liners are as exquisitely apt as ever." N.Y. Post.
